SIMPLE CHURCH DIRECTORY:

We are in the process of producing a VERY SIMPLE church directory—on the order of a single sheet or two—that will include basic 'contact information' for everyone in the church who wants to be connected in that way.

Some cautions/restraints, however:

Only people who divulge their own information will be able to receive the list.

UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES is ANYONE associated with the list, to offer it OR ANY OF ITS CONTENTS to anyone else NOT on the list—including church folks who are not on the list. This is an implication of # 1 above. Observing personal confidentiality and an agreed-upon sphere of contact is the over-riding consideration.

IF you have already responded to an e-mail OR snail-mail about the directory, NOTHING MORE IS NEEDED. If you have NOT been contacted in either way, PLEASE FILL OUT a 'Connection Card' TODAY, ALONG WITH A NOTE: "Church Directory" and you will be included in our new, simple directory.

PLEASE MARK YOUR CALENDAR: Sunday, March 21, 2010

Dr. Randy Corbin, Superintendent of our Mid-Atlantic District, of The Christian and Missionary Alliance, will be visiting. One of the key reasons for his visit is to update us with 'where we are' with respect to ACC's future. EVERYONE IS INVITED, both to the morning service AND the post-service fellowship meal, at which Dr. Corbin will answer any questions that can then be answered.

ACC daily church-wide prayer for February, 2010:

"Lord, please pour out Your Holy Spirit on us in a 'Pentecost Perpetuated' fashion."

Writings from the books of A.W. Tozer
How Can We Know What Cannot Be Known?

If all this sounds strange to modern ears, it is only because we have for a full half century taken God for granted. The glory of God has not been revealed to this generation of men. The God of contemporary Christianity is only slightly superior to the gods of Greece and Rome, if indeed He is not actually inferior to them in that He is weak and helpless while they are least had power.

If what we conceive God to be He is not, how then shall we think of Him? If He is indeed incomprehensible, as the Creed declares Him to be, and unapproachable, as Paul says He is, how can we Christians satisfy our longing after Him? The hopeful words, "Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace," still stand after the passing of the centuries; but how shall we acquaint ourselves with One who eludes all the straining efforts of mind and heart? And how shall we be held accountable to know what cannot be known?

"Canst thou by searching find out God?" asks Zophar the Naamathite; "canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection? It is high as heaven; what canst thou do? Deeper than hell; what canst thou know?" "Neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son," said our Lord, "and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him." The Gospel according to John reveals the helplessness of the human mind before the great Mystery which is God, and Paul in First Corinthians teaches that God can be known only as the Holy Spirit performs in the seeking heart an act of self-disclosure.

Verse

"No one has seen the Father except the one who is from God; only he has seen the Father." John 6:46

Thought

God can be known only as much as the Holy Spirit might reveal to the person who honestly seeks to know Him.

Prayer

We long to know You, Father, but we are helpless to achieve that. Please let your Spirit work in our hearts and minds to give us a glimpse of Yourself.
